

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF ADAMS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

In Re: Work Release

: Administrative Order No.
: 39 of 2002

ORDER OF COURT

AND NOW, this 25th day of November, 2002, hereinafter any person directed to be confined in the Adams County Prison pursuant to a sentence of partial confinement or Phase I of intermediate punishment, except those persons confined pursuant to a state suspended sentencing order, shall be immediately eligible for participation in all outmate programs without the need for further approval by the Court if the inmate otherwise satisfies all requirements of the release program as set forth in the policies adopted by the Adams County Prison Board and the Court.

All other persons requesting permission to participate in release programs and all persons requesting furloughs must be expressly approved by the Court in advance of release from the prison for that purpose in accordance with practice and procedure in effect at that time.

BY THE COURT,

JOHN D. KUHN
President Judge

ROBERT G. BIGHAM
Judge

MICHAEL A. GEORGE
Judge
