CHESTER COUNTY TRAVELER ARRESTED ON CHILD PREDATOR CHARGES

Adams County Assistant District Attorney Kelley L. Margetas announced today that Victor M. Priego, aka, Victor M. Priego-Reyes, 33, of Coatesville, Chester County, Pennsylvania, was charged and arrested on Saturday, April 21, 2018, on multiple felony offenses as a result of online communications with a 13-year-old Adams County resident. The investigation also revealed that Priego had picked up the teen in New Oxford in March of 2018, and took her to his residence in Coatesville, Chester County, where it is alleged he sexually abused her. The minor's disappearance resulted in a several-day missing persons investigation, that ended when the teen voluntarily returned. Margetas announced that Priego has been charged with Interference with Child Custody, Statutory Sexual Assault, Indecent Assault, Corruption of Minors, Unlawful Contact with a Minor, and Criminal Use of a Communication Facility. Priego was extradited from Chester County and is currently incarcerated in Adams County. Bail has been set at $250,000. Please refer to the attached Criminal Complaint and Affidavit of Probable Cause.

Adams County Assistant District Attorney Margetas thanked Larry Kitzmiller, Jr., and the Eastern Adams Regional Police Department for their investigative efforts in this case. She also thanked the City of Coatesville Police Department and the Chester County District Attorney's Office for their assistance in the matter. In this case, as with all criminal cases, the defendant is presumed innocent until proven guilty.
